Sunday's Sermon: The arm of the Holy Spirit (Isaiah 63:7-14)

Reminder:

This Saturday, September 7 is the day the church will do the tasks that keep the building looking good. If you are available, your presence will be welcomed. The temps may be cool if you are doing work outside. Dress appropriately.

Community Picnic:

Saturday, September 28 from 4-7 is the for the Community Picnic. An invite has been sent to the town of Monroe, but we can still personally invite too. What a way to show the community we care for them with the love of Jesus.

Coming Soon:

Barry McCune will be filling the pulpit on September 15. This allows Pastor Troy to take a week of vacation beginning on the 9th of September and being back in the office on the 16th of September.

Update:

If you drive or walk past the church on September 11-13 you will see activity from the Stylus Company out of Bluffton. Those are the dates when the security cameras will be installed at the church.

Laurel Missions:

The 2024 Summer update was emailed recently. You can also see a copy of it at the Mission Center. This is one of the three ministries the WestSide Community supports. The other two are the Spence family and the Bilimeks.

OCC:

Between your generous giving and individuals in the community making donations for using the facility, we have enough money to mail the shoeboxes we fill this year. Also, each shoebox will receive a Bible in the language where it is being sent.

FlightWatch:

That is the name of the small magazine that comes to the WestSide Community compliments of MAF. Read stories of how the LORD is working around the world through this ministry that we support. It can be found at the Mission Center.

Let's Pray:

- New faces and families to begin attending WCC.
- Steve and Lindsey Bilimek (MAF) Mission Aviation Fellowship
- Jeff and Shauna Spence (Serving in Taiwan)
