Sunday's Sermon: Joshua 7:1-13

Reminder:

This Sunday there will be a potluck for Pastor Troy and Cindy. This is our way of saying "Thank You" for the many years spent as our pastor. The meal will take place following Sunday school.

Another Reminder:

Monday, June 30 will be the night when we celebrate Richard and Inez's wedding anniversary. They will have been married 65 years!!! Congratulations.

Questions Series:

This week we will talk about the toll Achan's sin took on the sons of Israel. The question is asked from the LORD to Joshua, "Why is it that you have fallen on your face?" This question applies to our lives today.

Church Update:

If you were not here last Sunday and would like to know what the next steps for the WestSide family is, any of the elders can fill you in on the latest information. Feel free to approach them. Remember, the congregation's part in this process is to pray. Pray often and pray every day.

Volunteers:

The third quarter Volunteer Schedule will be available this Sunday. Make sure to get your copy at the Information Center.

June 29:

Everyone knows what that means. It is a fifth Sunday month, so come prepared to enjoy a donut with a freshly brewed cup of hot coffee. Just thinking about it can make a mouth water.

It's Ready:

The AED has been hung on the wall under the coat rack between the Main building and the gym. Hopefully, we will never need to use it. If so, we are prepared and training will follow. A big thanks goes out to Liz Blume.

Let's Pray:

Richard Hirschy (Health concerns)
Brent Hodle (Health Concerns)
Steve and Lindsey Bilimek who serve God in Indonesia.
Jeff and Shauna Spence who serve God in Taiwan.
