Sunday's Sermon: Hebrews 2:1-8 (A Study of Hebrews)

Be Prepared:

The smells of some of the most delicious soups will fill the air as you enter the gym this Sunday. Food has a way of bringing people together, allowing relationships to deepen. All of us have friends who would welcome an invitation for a bowl of soup.

Praise Prompt:

As part of our worship this Sunday, there will be time for individuals to thank God for a time in their lives. Think of a time when God amazed you. The prompt states, "God, you amazed me when..."

Up Here:

In case you are wondering, the items for the baby shower for the Hope Clinic are to be placed in the crib located on the stage in the sanctuary. Let's be a blessing to those who have chosen life for their baby by delivering them what they need.

Fill in the blanks:

Let's pray for new _____ and _____ to begin attending WCC.

Steve and Lindsey Bilimek who serve God in _____.

Jeff and Shauna Spence who serve God in _____.

Why:

The reason we have events is to continually connect with those in our church family. Jesus was continually building relationships and so should we. When we invite people to these events, we don't know how God has been working in their hearts. Who knows, maybe they will be at home in our church family?

BWC:

These letters stand for Becoming a Welcoming Church. This also explains why you may see some changes to the facility both inside and out. Curious about what it all means? Pastor Troy would love to talk to you.

Something New:

In the right-hand column you may notice a new verse. Each month we will put a new verse to for the church to focus on. The reason for this verse is to encourage people to bless the LORD by participating in the praise prompts.

Questioned:

In case you are wondering why the total expenses are so high, the answer is due to the extra monies given to the missionaries last year. Each of the three families was given a $500 gift, but that gift was not recorded until 2025.
